

Description: My final project is an interactive website that encapsulates a 20 year journey of deep exploration, reflection, dreaming and a huge vision to reclaim my wholeness. And to help others find and reclaim their wholeness. I believe is that by reclaiming our wholeness, we open up space and possibility for our world to reclaim it's wholeness as well. It is my hope that embarking on the journey through my website: From Darth Vader to Yoda: A Journey From Leader to Elder, that you will find yourself reflecting and wandering into the landscape of your own stories towards your unique path to wholeness.
